

Make Me a Collaborator

Pair up with two other participants. Take turns interviewing each other. Ask the following questions:

How can I best help you become a collaborative problem solver?

What habits will you need help overcoming in order to be more collaborative?

What will remind you to seek mutual satisfaction?

What assistance do you find most helpful when it comes to aligning your will with the Will of God?